

Camera Club of Oak Ridge

Newsletter for October 2013

Next meeting: Tuesday, October 8. Roane State Community College, Room A-111. Come to chat at 7:00 pm, meeting convenes at 7:30.

Program: our bimonthly intra-club competitions resume with the theme of RUST. The central theme is rust and should dominate the focus of the photograph. Items could be old vehicles, equipment, bridges, etc in a state of decay or by design.

Bimonthly club competition rules.

Print division: prints should be 60 to 320 square inches mounted on foam core board, preferably 16 X 20 inches. Matting and framing are optional and are disregarded in judging. On the back in the top left corner, print the title of the photo, your name and a direction arrow for up.

Digital division: images should be JPEG files 1400 pixels on the longest side. Email files to competition@oakridgecameraclub.org It would help if your file is named in the format: yourname.theme.1.jpg

The competition chairman will acknowledge receipt of the image(s) by return email.

Last meeting: Fall Wildflowers. Kris Light presented an interesting program on the sex life of wildflowers illustrated with her own photos.

Charlie Jernigan of UT Arboretum Society gave details of a special contest open only to CCOR members for publication in the Journal of the International Holly Society. The link given in his handout was in error. For more details, the correct link is <http://utarboretumsociety.org/HollyPhoto.shtml>

2013 Salon is upon us: How did it get here so soon? Digital submissions may be made at the October 8 meeting on CD or electronically October 12 through October 20. Print submissions will be on November 1 and 2 at the New Hope Center. Rules and entry forms will be available at the October meeting or one can download them from the website.

Club website: <http://oakridgecameraclub.org>.

Club Facebook page: <https://www.facebook.com/groups/143536672523225/> or click on the Facebook icon at the bottom of the home page of the CCOR website.
