

Camera Club of Oak Ridge

Newsletter for November 2013

Next meeting: Tuesday, November 12. Roane State Community College, Room A-111.
Come to chat at 7:00 pm, meeting convenes at 7:30.

Program: Colby McLemore will speak on Adobe Lightroom 5. He is highly regarded for his abilities as a teacher of digital photography concepts. Do not miss it. You can check out more details of his resume on our club website or his website at colbysphotography.com

Last meeting: Rob Welton discussed an opportunity for the club to provide photographs for a book about Oak Ridge: Then and Now. Submissions are still being accepted. See the website for details.

The bimonthly competition with a theme of Rust was judged by John May of Pellissippi State Community College. He did a good job of sharing his criteria for judging the images. We had outstanding participation with members submitting 60 digital images and 9 prints. Here are the winners -

Digital division

1. 1. Antifreeze barrel -Yvonne Dalschen

2. 2. Rusty Hook - Gilbert Cremese

3. 3. If Kandinsky Worked at a Body Shop – Yvonne Dalschen

4. 4. Rust plates – Michael Miller

Hon mention – Mike Boyd, Roni Boyd, Gilbert Cremese, Michael Miller (2)

Prints (Titles by editor; I failed to get the real titles)

1. 1. Punta Arenas abstract – Pat Postma

2. 2. Rusty car – Yvonne Dalschen

3. 3. Fireplug – Robert Winter

4. 4. Truck – Pat Postma

Reminders: UT Arboretum Society has a special contest open only to CCOR members for publication in the Journal of the International Holly Society. Deadline for submission is January 2, 2014. More details at <http://utarboretumsociety.org/HollyPhoto.shtml>

2013 Salon .: Print submissions will be on November 1 and 2 at the New Hope Center. Volunteers to help with the salon are still needed. Contact Alice Reed at Salon@oakridgecameraclub.org if you can help out. Gallery viewing will be November 11 through January 2. See the website for specific hours. There will be a reception and gallery walk on Friday, November 15, 7-9 pm. Come and support the club.

Club news items: Ron Sentell led a workshop to Big Creek in the Smokies in October. There was a good turnout with about a dozen participants from CCOR and SANP. The moving water made for some great images but we were a bit early for leaf color.
