

Camera Club of Oak Ridge

Newsletter for November 2014

This month's meeting is one week earlier than usual

Next meeting: November 4, 2014 Roane State Community College (Oak Ridge campus), Room A-111. Come to chat at 7:00 pm, meeting convenes at 7:30.

Program: Yvonne Dalschen will give a presentation titled "The Art of the Photograph - A Miscellaneous Salon."

Sorted into the categories of our own Salon we will look at images that are considered art. Pictures from different eras in the history of photography will show technical innovations as well as art developments. At the end of the night we will have seen the earliest photos ever taken but also the most expensive photography at auction. Some images will inspire us for the next year, some maybe not.

Audience participation is encouraged. We can discuss the categories, add any information you may have or find a volunteer to critique an image.

Yvonne Dalschen worked at an auction house in Munich before moving around the world and picking up photography. She has a UT non-credit photography certificate, a couple of competition ribbons and is working on a history of the Camera Club of Oak Ridge.

Last meeting: The program was an excellent presentation called "Learning to Compete, Compete to Learn". It was given by award-winning Knoxville photographer Genna Sellers. Her website is www.gennasellersphotography.com

Upcoming meetings: A club favorite, Colby McLemore, will give a program on the subject of portrait photography at the December meeting.
