At the March Meeting:

Stephen Wicks, the Knoxville Museum of Art's Curator, discussed photographer Jared Sprecher, Realism vs abstract, what is "original" work and the KMA Photography Collection. I would have to say he had some very interesting insight to these topics.

April Meeting will be a competition:

Other Dates of interest:

One of the happy side-effects of having a passion for photography is gaining an appreciation for other art forms and understanding that such things composition, color, texture, light and shadow, and "the decisive moment" are not the exclusive domain of photography. Music, painting, and other art forms can certainly inform the work of photographers. Toward that end, the Camera Club of Oak Ridge will have a Saturday Seminar featuring artists from a variety of genres on March 30 beginning at 10:00 AM.

The meeting will take place in the City Room of the McNally-Coffee Building on the Oak Ridge Campus of Roane State Community College. This is the venue for our regular monthly meetings and is located at 701 Briarcliff Avenue in Oak Ridge. The program will be moderated by Ms. Pat Postma and feature local potter Bill Capshaw; Roane State Music Department faculty member, opera singer, and composer Brenda Luggie; and art educator and visual artist Jim Dodson.

Please plan to join us for a program that promises to inform and broaden our approach to photographic art! The program is free and open to all.
